A Pot of Fine Loose Tea

Our fine loose leaf tea selection is provided by Commins Tea House, who are based in Sturminster Newton. They personally source fine loose leaf teas from around the world.

Oolong Tea Shanlinxi

A high mountain Oolong grown in Shibi. A beautiful light and floral tea with a clean fragrance and taste. 2.50

Assam

From the Khongea Estate (NE India). This BLACK tea has a rich & malty character. A great choice if you like your tea strong. Can be taken with milk. 2.50

First Flush Darjeeling

From the Makaibari Estate in Northern India. This BLACK tea is bright, sweet & exceptional. A great choice if you like a milder black tea. Best without milk. 3.00

Sencha Superior

From the tea fields of Uji, near Kyoto, Japan. This GREEN tea has a gentle aroma with a rich mellow taste. A good introduction to green tea. Should be taken without milk. 3.00

Mr Zhengs's Bai Mu Dan

From the Xiamen Chan Village, Funding. This WHITE tea is made from one leaf shoot and two newly sprouted leaves. An ideal tea for any time of the day. Should be taken without milk. 3.20
